

News and Gossip of Washington Society and Social Events

MRS. LINDLEY M. GARRISON, wife of the Secretary of War, was hostess at an attractive luncheon today in compliance to her house guest, Mrs. George Leary, of New York. Invited to meet Mrs. Leary were Mrs. Francis Warren, Mrs. Edmund Pendleton, Mrs. DeJols Blodgett, Mrs. William H. Goddard, Mrs. Edward H. Ghess, Mrs. William Concoran Hill, Mrs. John A. Johnston, Mrs. William L. Marshall, Mrs. Charles D. Walcott, Miss Mary Temple and Miss Laura Harlan.

Late this afternoon Mrs. Leary will return to her home accompanied by Mrs. Garrison, who will spend a week or ten days in New York.

—
Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, who has been stopping for several days with Mrs. John W. Foster, was the guest of honor at a luncheon of twelve covers given today by her hostess, Mrs. Thomas Riley Marshall, among the guests, Mrs. Harrison will leave Washington this evening.

—
Miss Ruth Bliss is entertaining at bridge this afternoon, followed by tea, her residence, 232 Bancroft place. Her guests are Mrs. E. M. Hacker, Mrs. Henry D. Flood, Mrs. Charles N. Riker, Miss Josephine Page, Miss May Power, Miss Katherine Holbrook, Miss Nora Hill, Miss Elizabeth Hill, Miss Lena Hitchcock, Miss Grace Neidhard, Miss Frances Bringer, Miss Hildegarde Hurley and Miss Hildreth Gatewood.

—
Mrs. Victor Blue has cards out for a bridge party on February 5, in honor of Mrs. Junius Parker.

—
Miss Dorothy Mason will entertain in honor of the Philadelphia, at a bridge party on the afternoon of February 18.

—
Mrs. W. W. Galbraith, wife of Lieutenant Commander Galbraith, U. S. N., gave a luncheon at the Shoreham Hotel. Her guests included Mrs. Victor Blue, Mrs. D. B. Merriman, Mrs. Thomas Colman, Mrs. Morvan Thompson, Mrs. John Dunlop, Mrs. Harry Taylor, Mrs. T. A. Baldwin, Miss Judge, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. Leahy, and Mrs. J. Hamilton Lewis.

—
Miss Louise Clark has invited guests to lunch with her on the afternoon of February 15, to meet Miss Dorothy Mason and Miss Sophie Blapham.

—
Mrs. Junius Parker will be the guest of honor at a luncheon at the Shoreham Hotel, which will be given on Thursday, February 4.

—
Miss Dorothy McCandlish entertained at a luncheon and shower today in honor of Miss and Mrs. Thompson, whose marriage to Lieut. Edmund F. Parker will take place on February 5. Miss McCandlish's guests included Leonard Nicholson, Miss Helen Nicholson, Elizabeth Garland, and Miss Pattie Morris. Yellow spring blossoms were used on the table.

—
Mrs. Abram Sims has just returned from a Western trip, which included visits in Chicago, Cincinnati, and Cleveland.

—
Miss Nannie Randolph Heth will leave Washington on February 3 for Richmond, where she will be the guest of honor at a reception given by Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Ellison on February 4. She will leave for California on February 6 with a party of state officials.

—
Miss Emille Hillman has returned from a five weeks' trip to Atlantic City and Philadelphia, and will be at home informally on Sunday afternoon.

Dinners and Dances.

The West End Citizens' Association will give their annual banquet at the Powhatan Hotel this evening, when there will be about 200 guests. The decorations are in green and white, and the orchestra has been augmented for the occasion. Edward M. Dulin is chairman of the entertainment committee, George W. Evans is president of the association, Henry B. Randall Webb, vice president; Luther W. Linsen, secretary, and Morris Hahn, treasurer.

—
Capt. and Mrs. Edward W. Eberie are the guests in whose honor Mrs. Joseph E. Throppe are entertaining at this evening.

—
Miss Mabel Boardman will be hostess at an informal dinner this evening.

—
Congressman and Mrs. Fred Britton were among the dinner hosts at the Army and Navy Club last night.

—
One of the most attractive parties of the evening will be the dance which Mrs. and Mr. Beale, after the bride, are giving for their daughters, Miss Edythe and Miss Margaret Howard, and their niece, Miss Kathryn Owen. The house will be decorated with palms and smilax, and there will be about 125 guests.

—
Several guests from out of town will be present, including Miss Nan Young, of Philadelphia, who is Mrs. Howard's house guest; Mr. and Mrs. John S. Marcou, Miss Wallis Warfield, and Miss Eleanor Bosley, all of Baltimore.

—
Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Henry G. Sharpe will entertain at dinner this evening.

—
Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ray will be hosts at a dance at the Playhouse this evening in compliment to their daughter, Miss Antoinette Ray. Mrs. Ray and Miss Ray will be assisted in receiving by their house guest, Miss Catherine Clark, of Spokane, Wash.

—
Mr. and Mrs. William Burr Harrison will be hosts at an informal dinner to-night at their home on P street.

—
Miss Dorothy Mason will give a dinner next Thursday night at the Army and Navy Club for Miss Sophie Blapham, of Philadelphia, who will arrive that day to spend several weeks with Miss Mason.

—
Mrs. Silas Case will entertain at dinner next Saturday night at the Chevy Chase Club for Miss Dorothy Mason and Miss Sophie Blapham.

—
Mrs. T. T. Mann will be hostess at a dinner on February 8 at the Chevy Chase Club for Mrs. Junius Parker, who will be the house guest of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Wells next week.

—
Dr. and Mrs. Walter Wells will be among the dinner hosts at the Chevy Chase Club next Wednesday night. Their guest of honor will be Mrs. Junius Parker, of New York.

—
Col. and Mrs. E. F. Ladd have invitations out for a dinner at the Chevy Chase Club on February 10 in compliment to Mrs. Alfred Chappell, of New London, Conn.

—
Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Hitt had guests at dinner last night.

—
An informal hop will be given by the officers and ladies of the Washington Barracks tonight at the Officers' Club.

—
Miss Genevieve Clark is heading a committee of young women of the Congressional set, who will do all in their power to make the Southern Relief ball, on Monday evening next, a success it has been in former years. Owing to Miss Clark's efforts the list of girls who will assist is growing rapidly.

—
Miss Nell Rose Baggett is chairman of the young ladies' floor committee and will be assisted by the Misses Bagley, the Misses Burleson, Miss Jeanette Cowan, Miss Elsie Chalker, Miss Mary Lord, and Miss Mary Graham.

—
Miss Hankhead Miss Dorothy Sawyer,

MISS LUCY BURLESON.

MISS SIDNEY BURLESON.

Personals.

The President and Miss Wilson had as their guest at the White House last night Mrs. Walter Hines Page, wife of the ambassador to London. Mrs. Page went today to stay with her brother-in-law, Congressman Robert N. Page, and Mrs. Page at their residence on Park road.

—
Mrs. DeFrees Craven and Miss Margery Critten will go to New York on Monday for a week's visit.

—
Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels will have visiting them next week Miss Mary Cleaves Daniels, of Gold-

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the borough, N. C., and Miss Evelyn Jackson, of Richmond, Va.

—
Miss Edith Gracie went to New York today to visit Mr. and Mrs. John P. Gilford at 471 Lexington avenue.

—
Miss Caroline Fairchild Stewart of New York, is visiting Mrs. George W. Fairchild at the New Willard Hotel for several days.

—
Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cobb and Mr. H. Hamlin Garland, all of New York, arrived at the Shoreham yesterday.

—
Harry Rust, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Rust, of Cleveland Park, is recovering from a severe attack of the grip.

—
Mr. and Mrs. J. Dudley Pickman, of Boston, are stopping at the Shoreham Hotel, where they will be until after the marriage of their son, Edwin M. Pickman, and Miss Heather Chandler, which will take place at noon tomorrow.

—
Mrs. Godfrey L. Cabot and Miss Eleanor Cabot, of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Balch, of Philadelphia; Mrs. George DeForest Lord, of New York; and Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Martens, of London, are among the late arrivals at the Shoreham Hotel.

—
Mrs. Donaldson, wife of Major Thomas Donaldson, will return the first of next week to Washington from a lengthy stay in New York, and will occupy an apartment in the Toronto.

—
Capt. C. H. Miller, U. S. A., and Mrs. Miller are making a short stay at the New Willard Hotel.

—
Miss Alma Dreier, of Fort Wayne, Ind., arrived in Washington this morning to be the guest of Miss Natalie Driggs.

—
Miss Wallis Warfield, who will come to Washington from Baltimore to attend the dance which Mr. and Mrs. Beale R. Howard are giving this evening for their daughters, the Misses Howard, and their niece, Miss Kathryn Owen, will be the guest of her aunt, Mrs. D. B. Merriman, at the Paragon, returning tomorrow to Baltimore.

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
The Stars and Stripes, mingled with the Georgetown colors, will give the theater a gala appearance, and the senior class of the Georgetown Medical School, in caps and gowns, will act as ushers.

—
The performance of "Jack's Romance," to be given at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Georgetown University Hospital, promises to be a brilliant success from every standpoint, and the ladies of the hospital board, under whose auspices the play is being given, are highly gratified with the outlook. Half the proceeds of all sales made outside the theater will be for the endowment of a charity ward in the hospital, and tickets may be used for the same purpose.

—
A number of box parties will be given at this performance, among the box holders being Miss Alice Riggs, Miss Mary Miller, Mrs. Clarence Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ewing, Mrs. Christian Hemmick, and Dr. George Tully Vaughan.

—
Miss Margery Pyle, of Wilmington, Del., is visiting her cousin, Miss Dorothy Deebie, at her home on P street.

Army and Navy

Major JOHN H. RICE, Ordnance Department, to the Rock Island Arsenal, Rock Island, Ill., on business pertaining to the operations of the Ordnance Department.

Colonel JOHN H. PHILLIPS, Medical Corps, to Hot Springs, Ark., Army General Hospital for observation and treatment.

First Lieutenant FREDERICK J. O'BRYEN, Tenth Infantry, is detailed on account of military science and tactics at the State College of Washington, Pullman, Wash.

First Lieutenant FRED W. PITT, Nineteenth Infantry, is relieved from treatment at the Walter Reed General Hospital, D. C., and will proceed to Hot Springs, Ark., Army and Navy General Hospital for observation and treatment.

NAVY.
Lieutenant GUY WHITLOCK, to connection (filing out) Baltimore and on board when commissioned.

Lieutenant (Junior grade) W. R. MURPHY, to the U. S. S. Albatross, U. S. Navy, Long Beach, Cal.

MOVEMENTS OF VESSELS.
ARRIVED—Severn at Cristobal; New York at Guantanamo; Dolphin at Washington; Washington at Port au Prince; Gambia at San Francisco.

SAILED—Severn from Almirante Bay for Cristobal; Dolphin from Tangier Sound for Washington; Rhode Island from Tangier Sound for Guantanamo; Albatross from Guantanamo for Quetzalero Bay; Castine from La Romana for Port au Prince; San Diego from La Paz for San Diego; Glacier from Tiburon for San Francisco.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington Bar Association is to be held at Raucher's, February 6, and will be featured by address by Vice President Marshall, Congressman Webb, of North Carolina, Judge Stanton, Peelle, formerly of the United States Court of Claims, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey.

—
The annual banquet of the Washington